KIEL MARINE SCIENCES
INTEGRATED SCHOOL OF OCEAN SCIENCES

„MEET THE PROF“ Mike Orbach

Professor of Marine Affairs and Policy,
Director, Duke University Coastal Environmental Management Program, North Carolina, USA

15.09.2013 | 17:00 h

“Environmental policy is always - and only - about social change based on human beliefs, values and perceptions. You are all part of that process, only a small part of which is actually producing science”

Mike Orbach concentrates on applications of social science to environmental policy and management, marine fisheries and integrated coastal management, and public involvement in environmental policy.

He is an active waterman (fishing, surfing, sailing) with involvement in grassroots conservation movements.

Venue: Hotel Steigenberger Conti Hansa, room Baltic A, Schloßgarten 7, 24103 Kiel

Contact: Avan Antia, Integrated School

This event is part of the summer school on Coastal Hazards and open to all interested young scientists.

During Meet the Prof. events you can meet – personally and informally – with top-level international scientists and experts visiting Kiel. Find out what they think are the top challenges in their field and what it takes to make a career within or outside of science. These are open events for all interested participants from Bachelors students to Post-Docs.
