

Program Information event: 'Academic career paths in Germany and their legal ramifications'

Kiel University, March 1, 2017, Murmann-Hörsaal, Leibnizstr. 1, 24118 Kiel

9.00 – 9.05	Welcome	PD Dr. Gesche Braker, Coordinator 'Integrated Marine Postdoc Network' (IMAP), Cluster of Excellence 'The Future Ocean'
9.05 – 9.25	Welcome note	Prof. Dr. Karin Schwarz, Kiel University Vice President of Research, Technology Transfer and Young Scientists
9.25 – 9.30	Introduction Dr. Hendricks	Dr. Christel van den Bogaard, Coordinator Helmholtz Research School Ocean System Science and Technology (HOSST)
9.30 – 10.30	Qualifications on the classical track to a professorship	Lawyer Dr. Sven Hendricks, Legal Advisor for 'Hochschul- und Beamtenrecht' at the German Association of University Professors and Lecturers	Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Habilitation, Juniorprofessorship, researchers at non-university institutions• Visiting professors• High-risk profession 'Professorship'• Promotional programs for early career scientists• Networking
10.30 – 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 – 11.05	Organisational issues and introduction Dr. Preißler	Dr. Christiane Schelten, Scientific coordinator SFB 754: Climate – Biogeochemistry Interactions in the Tropical Ocean
11.05 – 12.30	Regulations on time-limited contracts and 'Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz'	Lawyer Dr. Ulrike Preißler, Legal Advisor for 'Hochschul- und Beamtenrecht' at the German Association of University Professors and Lecturers	Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Time-limited contracts: Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz, 12-Jahres-Regelung'• Scientific staff in third party funded projects• Extension of contracts upon child care• Employment options within the 'Teilzeit- und Befristungsgesetz'
12.30 – 13.00	Questions to the speakers
13.10 – 14.30	Opportunity for individual counselling	Experts from Kiel University and GEOMAR Helmholtz Centre for Ocean Research Kiel
